De, A. M. HAUPEGRAU—My Dear Sir: My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, it consequence of great angulat and suffering same months before and during confinement; every successive one more desilicated and provincial hard, putting her life in imminent sangue, and which was, on the last occasion, despathed of. I suppressed that this state of things was inevitable, as a readged myself to meet the worst. I heard your book highly spokes of, as eccetable, some matter reaching my case. On his receipt and percent, and the joy its pages imperated to my wife on learning that the great discovery of H. B. Decombant provided such a remed, it presented to propose to me wheel I little conceived was possible. But for this, or a months; year would have peesed over my head, in all human probability, my offe would have been in her grave, and my suithform int moderates.
